PROCLAMATION

The early adventurous birds, the position of the sun and a thousand less obvious but quite as certain signs of spring are at hand. Spring means, or should mean, house cleaning, and not only house cleaning, but yard cleaning, street and alley cleaning, painting, refurbishing; it should mean order and harmony and beauty.

To the end that the campaign already started by the Ladies Federated Clubs may be a great success and make of Guthrie already noted as one of the cleanest cities in Oklahoma; I hereby proclaim and designate Friday the 19th day of March as "Clean-up Day" and I invite the earnest, hearty and harmonious cooperation of our daily paper our various societies, clubs and organizations, civic leagues, city schools and all other schools.

May I urge every citizen of Guthrie to make an effort to clean up his house and property so as to avoid fire risks; to clean up his front and back yards; to paint his premises; necessary; to abolish all places that might breed flies and mosquitoes; to eliminate dandelions and weeds and to clean up vacant lots. Citizens should not put their rubbish on the sidewalks or streets, but in some kind of receptacle, a box, can or bag. The street department is putting on extra men and teams and will collect all such rubbish.

This is an opportunity for every citizen not only to show his personal pride, but also his civic pride. Let us all work together and clean up, and if necessary, to paint up Guthrie, not only on this day especially set apart, but throughout the entire year and years to come. Let us plant grass flowers and trees. Let us make Guthrie not only clean but beautiful, and the result will be a cleaner, healthier and more attractive city.

"Little beds of flowers.
 Little cans of paint.
 Makes homes attractive
 Out of them that ain't."

Given under my hand and the seal of the City of Guthrie, Oklahoma, this 15th day of March, 1915.

J. E. NISSLEY,

Mayor.

Attest: R. N. DUNHAM,
 City Clerk.

FACTS ABOUT THE CITY ELECTION.

For the guidance of those who are not familiar with the election law the following information has been prepared by the election board:

Can a man vote if he has lost his registration receipt?

Yes. Satisfy the inspector of the precinct in which you registered that you have lost it and that you are the elector named in the duplicate in the hands of the inspector, and he will issue a duplicate receipt.

Suppose this same man who lost his receipt has moved into another precinct and has been there more than thirty days before voting. What must he do to be able to vote?

First, get a duplicate receipt from the inspector, as just explained. Then have the inspector endorse, "Transferred to Ward —, Precinct —," on the back of the duplicate and dated and signed by the inspector.

When must one have the transfer endorsed by the inspector?

Any time up to and including election or primary day.

When is the next registration?

April 1, 2, 3, 1915, the same being Thursday, Friday and Saturday before city election on April 6, 1915.

Can Vote in Primary.

Can a man vote in the primary on March 16, 1915, if he did not register in the 1914 registration?

Yes, if since the last general election he has acquired the right of suffrage, as becoming of age or because of residence, or if he was sick or absent at the time of the last regular registration; affidavits will be provided at the voting places for such electors to make before voting.

What are the dates for filing for office by candidates for the primary?

February 24 to March 6.

Can a man get on the ticket for the election April 6, without first going through the primary?

No. This is true of even the independents.

What is the date of the primary? March 16, 1915.

And of the city election? April 6, 1915.

Suppose a man has properly registered, but his precinct has been changed, will he have to get his registration receipt transferred?

No. The inspector for the new precinct will be instructed to accept the receipt. The fact is, he has not removed or changed, but the numbering of his precinct has merely been changed.

GEORGE JAY GOULD.

(Below.)

The recent meeting of the stockholders of the Missouri Pacific railroad in St. Louis marked a change in American railroading which may have a wide influence. It saw the entrance into steam railroading of Nicholas F. Brady, who is believed to control the enormous fortunes of his late father, Anthony F. Brady, who was estimated when he died last year to be worth between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000.

George Jay Gould, eldest son of Jay Gould, had inherited the property, or the controlling interest from his father. For years he has managed it unsuccessfully. When he tried to make it a link with the Wabash and the Western Maryland to Baltimore, thus establishing a new transcontinental railroad, the great interest in control of the Pennsylvania, the New York Central and other systems went after him. They beat him, and then the Gould system began to crumble. At last the Missouri Pacific has been taken from the family, under the leadership of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, the great New York bankers.

tive office. "I shall protest to the last against Derwin," said Owen. "Then I protest against License," said Gore.

Both names were stricken from the President's recess list. The President then called on Postmaster General Burleson to step in and try and straighten out the tangle.

Burleson in turn put the matter up to Congressman Joe Thompson, who came into possession of fifth district patronage on March 4.

"I'm trying to keep my fingers off," said Thompson. "This matter was originally handled by the two senators, and I think they should go on through with it."

On Friday Postmaster General Burleson wrote a letter to Thompson, who is now at his home in Paul's Valley, asking him to suggest a compromise candidate, one who would be acceptable to all factions.

"Derwin is a fine man for the Guthrie office," wrote Burleson, "but inasmuch as Owen's opposition will be carried to the next senate, the President feels new men should be substituted both at Guthrie and Okmulgee."

On Saturday Mr. Burleson wrote another letter to Thompson asking if James Lewis, Guthrie, would be acceptable to all parties, and if so, his appointment would be made by President Wilson.

Senator Gore wired Guthrie today that "in view of Owen's mean fight," he might decide to withdraw Derwin's name, but himself would oppose the confirmation of any man for postmaster at Guthrie who "did not measure up to Derwin's standard." Senator Gore also said the postoffice matter had really passed beyond the control now of the senators and was up to Thompson, Burleson and Wilson, at least until the next senate met.

KANSAS DEADLOCK IN LEGISLATURE BROKEN

(By Associated Press.)
 Topeka, Kan., March 17.—In the bitterest fight of the session, the house today adopted the conference report on a general appropriation bill. Speaker Stone threatened to appeal to the governor to veto the measure down to the original house bills. He charged "rail of trade" transactions through the legislature. The house was in an uproar for twenty minutes.

CHAMPAGNE, PORT AND BLACKBERRY CORDIAL.

Olton, Okla., March 17.—What is said to be one of the best stocked saloons doing business in Oklahoma at the present time is stationed close to the old Oklahoma-Indian territory line, several miles west of Olton. Persons who have visited it say that in addition to the more common drinks of whisky and beer, the bar-keep has also champagne, port, blackberry cordial, peach brandy and other bottled goods—a stock, in fact, that would have done credit to a saloon prior to statehood.
